FOREWORD

I have always had an interest in genealogy and especially in the Witter families in the United States. I thought that all of the people with the name Witter were descended from William Witter of Lynn, Massachusetts, but my research found this is not the case. One of the research resources available to me was the 1900 Federal census. One of the reasons I used this census is because it is indexed and it gives the month and year of birth of the people. I found that there were many Witter families listed in the 1900 census that were recent immigrants in the United States, especially from Germany and Switzerland. I found there were Witter families in Pennsylvania that do not descend from the New England line.

There are some people that I would like to thank who were extremely helpful in supplying material for this book. Mrs. Barbara Smith of York, PA who had once lived in Skaneateles, NY told me that she had Witter ancestry and her parents had a manuscript. I borrowed the manuscript which had been prepared by Herbert P. Wilber, who was a great uncle of Barbara. He intended to publish his work but it never was done. Another manuscript was obtained from Donald D. Witter of Chicopee, MA who had done a lot of research on Witter families in New England while he was looking for his own Witter ancestry. His manuscript added a lot of material which I did not have. These two manuscripts are referenced throughout the book as the Wilber and the Witter manuscripts. Another reference which I referred to often was the 1929 Witter Genealogy which was published by Georgia Cooper Washburn. It is referenced in the book as 1929 Witter Genealogy. Although there were some errors in her book, it has been an excellent reference book for me.

Some other people who were very helpful were Edwin Damon Witter Jr. of Sacramento, CA. He has sent me material on the families that descend from Dr. George Franklin Witter, which includes the people who started the stock brokerage firm of Dean Witter & Co. Mrs. Frances Heyerdahl of Orfordville, WI sent me material on the descendants of Daniel Coon Witter and Washington Witter of Boone Co., Illinois. Calvin Spading of Oronoco, MN has sent me material on the descendants of Robert and Lorana Witter of Green Co., WI. Helen Witter of Fremont, OH sent me a manuscript on the descendants of James B. Witter of Castalia, Erie Co., Ohio. The late Glenn Witter of Arcade, NY sent me the material from the family reunions of the descendants of Joshua and Nancy Witter of Cuba and Friendship, NY. Newell and Maxine Witter of Redding sent me material on the descendants of Chester Rood Witter of Hollister, CA.

The material in the book wouldn't have been possible without the help of everyone who I requested material from. I also hired some professional people to do research in Ohio, Iowa, and California where I knew Witter families had lived. I also traveled around New York State collecting material on families that lived in the state. A wealth of knowledge was found in Ontario Co., NY especially in the Old and New Gorham Cemetery, Gorham, NY where several Witter families are buried. Many Witter families lived in Allegany Co., NY and are buried in Alfred Rural Cemetery and other cemeteries in the county. The Daphne Brownell collection of material in the local history room of the Library at the State College in Alfred was very helpful. Another publication found at this library was The Sabbath Recorder, which is a quarterly publication of the 7th Day Baptist Church. In these publications are found the marriage and death dates and obituaries of members of the church. The only two other libraries that have these publications are the Westerly, RI Public Library and the 7th Day Baptist Church Library in Janesville, WI.

I hope you will enjoy the book. I hope there are not too many errors in the book, but errors sometimes do creap into works. Sometimes it was difficult to understand handwriting and an error may have been made in the spelling of names. If there are errors, please bring them to my attention.

FIRST GENERATION

1. WILLIAM WITTER b. England about 1584 d. Lynn, Massachusetts in 1659. He married in England about 1628 to HANNAH or ANNIS CHURCHMAN, who died after William in Stonington, Connecticut where she removed to live with her son, Josiah. She is thought to be the daughter of Hugh Churchman, an early settler in Lynn, Massachusetts. William Witter was the executor of the will of Hugh Churchman and Hugh left his property to William's children, Josiah and Hannah Witter, who are probably Hugh's grandchildren.

There has been much research as to where in England, William Witter came from. One clue may be found on page 14 of the "Topgraphical Dictionary of 2,885 English Emigrants to New England, 1620-1650," by Charles Edward Banks, which indicated that William Witter came from Knutsford or the parish of Frodsham in County Cheshire, England, and settled at Lynn, Massachusetts. In George Ormerod's "History of the County Palantine and City of Chester, England (Cheshire)," published in London in 1882, Vol. 2, page 305 shows that one William Witter was a Rector of Tarporley as early as 1499 and states: "William Wyttur (Witter), who survived to 1543 was most probably displaced at the Reformation by death. He was a man of considerable substance, of a family long settled at Tarvin, and in the parish of Frodsham." The Mormon Church records at Salt Lake City, Utah show there is a William Witter who was baptised in Frodsham, Cheshire, England on December 17, 1587 but there is no proof that this is the record of the William who came to the United States.

William Witter was living in Massachusetts as early as 1639, which is the first mention of his name in the Quarterly Court Records of Salem, MA. One record states he sailed on the ship, "Four Sisters." The record of his arrival in New England is preserved in an old manuscript written by Samuel Witter (No. 50). The first entry is as follows: "William Witter in his voiage from old England to America with his wife his son Josiah and daughter Hannah, arrived at Lynn in the Massachusetts Bay, where Josiah married Elisabeth Wheeler and Hannah married Thomas Bardan. Said William Witter died at Lynn, his widow's name was Hannah. She came with her son Josiah to Stonington and lived to a great age." They settled on land about two miles from Lynn in Swampscott, Massachusetts.

William Witter's name appears in the Salem, Massachusetts Quarterly Court Records as follows:

31st: 10th month: 1639--Goodman Witter against John Pickering and Sam Bennet who are adjudged to pay 15d. aps to the said Witter for his paines chardgs, etc. besides the debt of 2s 6d which was forthwith paid beside. (Jury trial)

29th: 4th month: 1641--William Witter pl against Christopher Linsey deft in an accon of Debt. Jury find for pl five pounds ten shillings to be paid in payment suitable to what he received and costs of Court and witness eight shillings. Gr. exec. 5th of 5th month to Mr. Pester for him.

28th: 12th month: 1642--William Winter [Witter] (a Lynn presentment) presented for saying that Mr. Cobbett taught things against his own conscience, and for speaking against the ordinance of infant baptism. Witnesses: George Farr and Robert Driver. William is willing to see the light from speech of our Mr. Norris. To acknowledge his fault next lecture and ask Mr. Cobbett's forgiveness.

Given the then current belief that holy watching was a duty, this was not as unneighborly as it would seem today. He apologized.

February 1645-6--William Winter [Witter] of Lynn was presented for saying that they who stay while a child is baptised worship the Devil, etc. Henry Collence and Matthew West dealt with him, and he told them that they who stayed took the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost in vain, and broke the Sabbath. Witness against him was Edward Ingalls. He was ordered to make confession the next Lord's Day at Lynn, in the open congregation, or to answer at the next General Court. He failed to confess as ordered, and also failed to appear before the General Court, which ordered the major general to take order for his appearance at the next Court of Assistants at Boston, "there to answer and to be proceeded with according to the merits of his offence." How he answered and how the Assistants proceeded is not recorded.

25th: September: 1651--William Witter of Lynn was presented for absence from public ordinances nine months and for being rebaptised. Witnesses were Henry Collins, Ed Burchum, and Nich. Potter. William did not appear.

30th: 2nd month: 1657--Civil case in the Salem Court in the suit of Thomas Dexter vs Thomas Laiton, et al: The case was about the title of Nahant for trespass by keeping cattle, cutting wood, and building houses there, etc. This is a copy of an oath taken before Fra. Johnson, Commissioner on 15th, 2nd month, 1657.
The testimony of William Winter [Witter] aged 73 years or thereabouts, testifieth that Black Will or Duke William, so called, (an Indian of Agawam) came to my house (which was two or three miles from Nahant) when Thomas Dexter had bought Nahant of him for a suit of clothes, the said Black Will asked me what I would give him for the land my house stood upon, it being his land and his Father's wigwam stood thereabouts. James and John Sogomore and George Sogomore being a youth were present all of them acknowledging Black Will to be the right owner of the land my house stood on and Sogomore hill and Nahant was all his and further saith not. William reported that he bought the land about 1632 or 1634 for two pestle stones. The verdict was for the defendants.

In 1633 the Court of Assistants made it illegal to buy land from an Indian. William remained in possession of his land until he died and, although after his death his son had to litigate the extent of his title (unsuccessfully), he wound up owning something, even if less than he claimed. In 1679 the town clerk certified that the town book listed, under a 1676 date, twenty acres for Witter's son, Josiah.

On Sunday, the 20th of July 1651, three men of the Baptist persuasion came to Lynn, where they lodged at a Blind-man's house near two miles out of town by the name William Witter, aged sixty-seven years old. The three men, Dr. John Clark, John Crandall, and Obadiah Holmes, came from Newport, Rhode Island and Clark preached, administered the sacrament, and rebaptised Mr. Witter. This being reported to authorities, two constables went down to apprehend them as disturbers of the peace. They carried a warrant which had been granted by Hon. Robert Bridges. "By virtue hereof, you are required to go to the house of William Witter and so to search from house to house for certain erroneous persons, being strangers, and them to apprehend, and in safe custody to keep, and tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, to bring before me." Dr. Clark says, "while I was yet speaking there comes into the house where we were, two constables, who with their clamorous tongues make an interruption, and more uncivilly disturbed use than the pursuivant of the old English bishops were wont to do." In the afternoon they were taken to Mr. Whiting's meeting, where they refused to uncover their heads. Mr. Bridges ordered a constable to take off their hats, when one of them attempted to speak, but was prevented. At the close of the meeting one of them made some remarks, after which they were taken to the Anchor Tavern and guarded thru the night. In the morning they were sent to Boston and imprisoned. On the 31st, the Court of Assistants sentenced Holmes to pay a fine of 30 pounds, Clark 20 pounds, and Crandall 5 pounds. Clark and Crandall paid their fines. Holmes refused to pay his fine and was imprisoned till September when he was publicly whipped unmercifully that for many days he could not take rest but lay upon his knees and elbows. William Witter was presented at the Salem Court on the 27th of November for neglecting discourses and being rebaptised. He did not appear and the sentence is not recorded. Being 67 years of age and rebaptised would appear odd today, but in the 17th century the implied denial of the efficacy of the baptism he had received as an infant was regarded as a dangerous heresy.

In 1644, William Witter, the executor, presented the will of Hugh Churchman to the Salem Court. The will was dated 4th, 4th month, 1640 and was witnessed by Zachariah Gould. The will states: I, Hugh Churchman of Lynn do make this my will. First, I give my house and lot in Lynn with all my marsh and all other the appurtenances thereunto to Wilyam Winter [William Witter] till his son Josias shall attain the age of twenty-one years and then to his son Josias and his heirs forever: with this condition that he shall pay to his sister Hannah Witter ten pounds within one whole year after the aforesaid Josiah Witter shall attain the age of twenty-one years and if he shall refuse to pay to his sister Hannah Witter ten pounds of current money then my will is that Hannah Witter shall have the house and lot with all and singular the appurtenances to her heirs forever and she shall pay to her brother Josiah ten pounds: and my will is that if the aforesaid Josiah Witter shall die before he shall attain the age of twenty and one years that then the aforesaid Hannah shall have it without paying anything out of it: and my will is further that if the aforesaid Josiah and Hannah shall both die before that they shall attain the age of twenty one years that then William Witter or his now wife or the longer liver of them shall have it to them and their heirs forever. The rest of my goods or chattels unbequeathed to William Witter whom I do make sole executor to this my will. The inventory of his estate was taken 4th day, 6th month, 1644 amounting to 24 pounds 19s 11d. The will was presented the 5th month in 1644.

William Witter's will was dated 5th day, 6th month (August), 1659 and was presented to the Salem Court in 4th month (June) in 1661. The last will and testament of William Witter: being in perfit memory and first I commit my soule to God who gave it and my body to the earth from whenc it was taken. I give to my wife Annis halfe my lands, housing and chattels; but in case she change her name I bequeath to her but the thirds; and to my son Josia I give the other halfe of my lands, housing and chattels; but in case my wife marry, then I bequeath a double portion to my son Josia and his mother, my wife, shall have but the thirds as aforesaid; provided that my son shall not sell this his inheritance, but in case he die without issue; then I will that this inheritance shall be instated upon Robert Burdin and my daughter Hanna, for their posterities. I will my daughter Hanna Burdin shall have a ewe and lamb this time twelve months and I will that my wife Annis be my sole executor. Witnesses were Robert Driver and William Harker. The will was sworn by Annis Witter in court at Salem on 23th, 4th month, 1661.

3. JOSIAH WITTER (William[1]) b. Swampscott, MA or England in 1638 d. Stonington, Connecticut probably in 1685 (the old Witter manuscript says he died in 1690). He married (1) at Lynn, Massachusetts on February 25, 1662 to ELIZABETH WHEELER b. Lynn, Massachusetts about 1648 d. Stonington, Connecticut August 5, 1672, daughter of Thomas and Mary Wheeler. In Thomas Minor's diary is this entry: "1671 the Seventh moneth is September and hath 30 days . . . Tuesday the 10 good-wife witer was Lost." The shock of her being lost may have hastened her death. His diary also states: "1671 The sixth moneth is Agust and hath 31 days . . . the 7th day wensday Elizabeth Witter was buried." Josiah married (2) SARAH CRANDALL, daughter of Elder John Crandall and his first wife. Her father was one of the original purchasers of the land comprising Westerly, Rhode Island from which Hopkinton was later formed. He was the first Baptist Elder at Westerly and he was one of the religious leaders from the Newport Church that made the trip to Swampscott in 1651 to hold a religious meeting at the home of William Witter for which he was imprisoned and fined.

Josiah, his mother, wife, and child moved from Lynn, Massachusetts to Stonington, Connecticut between the years 1662 and 1666. He was listed in the census of February 2, 1668 in Stonington with 43 other early inhabitants. He purchased large tracts of land as stated on August 15, 1667 at a town meeting at Stonington: "it was voted that Goodman Witter shall have four score acres of land where it may be found and to take it according to order." He built a dwelling house situated a short distance from the residence of his father-in-law, Thomas Wheeler, where he resided for the remainder of his life and where the rest of his children were born. The house was situated in what is now North Stonington. He was a Deputy to the General Court in Connecticut from 1667 to 1670-1. On April 12, 1670, Thomas Park of New London sold to Josiah Witter of Stonington one hundred acres of land which had been granted to the said Park by the town of Stonington. The Town of Stonington records read as follows: The Record or Register of the Inhabitants Names taken this 29th of December 1670 by the selectmen of Stonington according to a towne order fformerly made the 15th of November 1670; josia witer 8 acres of land. Also in the town records but later than the foregoing entry and without date, Josiah is noted among the Freemen of Stonington. He also owned large tracts of land on which the town of Hopkinton, Rhode Island was founded.

The land that Josiah owned in Lynn, Massachusetts came under dispute in 1680. The Quarterly Court of Essex County, MA describes the case of Josiah Witter vs John Richards of Swampscott which was a case of trespass. John had received Mulliner's Right from his father, Edward Richards, and John and Josiah became embroiled in a boundary dispute of the land. Josiah came all the way from Stonington for the dispute. Perhaps due to distance, Josiah was nonsuited the first time, and Richards was awarded 1 pound 16s costs. Josiah came right back at the next session of the Court and this time got a verdict. John appealed to the Court of Assistants. John Richards reasons of appeal were that he had hald the land for above forty years, as by residence of Henry Collins Jr. and Henry Collins Sr., and had a legal title; that Witter under pretence of a record of Grant by the Town of twenty acres of land, dated March 31, 1676, lays claim to this parcel which the town had no right to dispose of; that he had his twenty acres and more unless he had conveyed it to another, and "therefore connot but Judg him Insatiable that he cannot be contented to run loose in his own pasture but he must break over fences and feed mine down also"; that Witter's conscience in former years would not allow him to claim it, although he had an "Itching desire after it"; as appeared by the testimony of Henry Collins and John Lewis, whom affirmed that Witter would have borrowed a yoke of oxen of said Lewis to purchase the land now in controversy which he then acknowledged to be Thomas Joye's; that Thomas Wheeler, father-in-law of Witter, deposed that about eighteen years ago he was Josiah Witter's house in Lynn; that Captain Marshall testified that Witter never sold any land within the fence, which Richards owns to be true, "for he sold not all of Mulliner's to Oliver purchase, for he reserved some part to hemself within fence which afterward he sold to Edward Richards, as appears by a deed from Thomas Joy to Capt. Marshall which bears the date May 30, 1661, which deed is now made over to Edward Richards". Sworn, September 15, 1680, at Stonington before Samuel Mason, Commissioner. The depositions on file with the Court recite the various disputes over Mulliner's Right for the past forty-odd years. The jury serving with the Court of Assistants found the case for John Richards, with costs. Josiah's bill of cost for the journey of 106 miles from Stonington and other costs was 4 pounds 1s 6d.

This land came into dispute again in 1684 in the case of Ezekiell Needham vs Benjamin Farr and the dispute was again over the boundary of Witter's and Farr's land. It was testified that the fence which divided the land of George Farr Sr. and William Witter, both deceased, had been standing for 35 or 36 years. The case of Josiah Witter of Stonington vs Benjamin Farr of Lynn for fencing in and withholding the defendant's land. The verdict was for the plaintiff. A letter of Attorney dated at New London, CT July 14, 1684 given by Josia Witter of Stonington, son of William Witter of Lynn, deceased to Ezekiell Needham of Lynn in this action concerning Witter's land at Lynn. It was testified that the bounds of the land in controversy were agreed upon between Josiah Witter and his father-in-law, Thomas Wheeler, then of Lynn, and also old George Farr, and so remained for 22 or 23 years.

Josiah Witter's will is indexed with the date November 24, 1685 at Salem, Massachusetts. The document itself is not on file at Salem, and its whereabouts is unknown. After his death his sons Ebenezer and John Witter, relinquished their interest in and to their late father's estate, by giving to the administrator thereof a receipt in full discharge in the year 1689. The son John Witter, also by receipt, relinquished all right, title and claim against his mother, Mrs. Sarah Crandall Button, and her husband, Peter Button, after the death of his father. Sarah married (2) about 1687 to PETER BUTTON b. Haverhill, Massachusetts July 17, 1660 d. Westerly, Rhode Island 1726-7 and they had four children born in Stonington: Peter b. January 1, 1688; Mary b. October 6, 1689; Matthias b. January 16, 1692; and Eliphal b. December 16, 1694.

7. JOHN WITTER (Josiah[2], William[1]) b. Stonington, CT March 11, 1677-8 d. Westerly, RI in August, 1757. He married (1) at Stonington, CT about 1703 to SARAH TEFFT, daughter of Samuel Tefft and Elizabeth Jenckes. Sarah was deceased by March 16, 1725 as she was listed as deceased in her father's will. John married (2) to Mrs. MARY (MARSH) LEWIS, widow of Israel Lewis who died June 28, 1719 age 50 years. Mary probably died soon after December 22, 1743.

John was admitted a freeman in Westerly, RI on January 29, 1702 and he also had registered his earmark, which was 1/2 penny under side of each ear. On June 28, 1709 he signed deed with 16 others of Narragansett Lands. On the same date, he signed a deed of Narragansett Lands with 24 others, and he signs his name upside down in this deed. On February 28, 1710 he signs deed with 23 others of Narragansett Lands of 110 acres. On April 9, 1716 John signed a mortgage deed and it was cancelled on January 25, 1738. On January 3, 1725-6 John received a deed of 150 acres of land from John Richmond and wife and on August 26, 1737 received a deed of 53 acres of land from Cyrus Richmond and wife. On December 22, 1743 he deeds 92 acres of land to his son, John Witter Jr., located north of thePawcatuck River. In this deed he refers to his wife Mary Witter who relinquishes her right of dower and power of thirds and signs the deed with him. On March 18, 1743-4 he deeds 54 acres of land to his son, Joseph Witter, adjoining land of John Witter Jr. In each of these deeds he speaks of the love, goodwill and natural affection he has for his sons and for their more comfortable maintenance--thus showing that the lands were a gift. This deed was only signed by John which may indicate that his wife, Mary, had died since the deed to John Witter Jr. On December 22, 1756 he deeded land to his son, Joseph Witter, near his other land deeded to him. On January 2, 1757 John appeared in Westerly and acknowledged the deed before the judge. This was the last record found of John Witter. He does not appear on the tax list of Westerly or Hopkinton in 1757. The names of John and Sarah Witter appear upon the church records of the First Westerly Church under the date of 9th month (November) 5, 1712. They were both listed as members in 1718 which would appear that Sarah was living at that date. John and his 2nd wife, Mary, appear on the membership list in 1740.

Hopkinton, RI March 23, 1802, daughter of William Stewart and Margaret Reynolds. His will was dated February 12, 1794 and proved February 11, 1799 at Hopkinton. In his will he left his sons, Joseph, Josiah and William six shillings each and his wife, Sarah, the use and profits of lands and tenements and all household goods. To his granddaughter, Sarah, daughter of William, bedding items and furniture and the remainder of his household goods to the rest of his grandchildren: namely, Weeden, Susanna, Lois, Hannah, Joseph, Eunice, Josiah, and Sarah Witter, the children of my son Josias Witter--and Sarah, Martha, Elizabeth, Mary, Welthy, William, Anna, Joseph, and Phebe Witter, the children of my son William Witter. The reason that he gave Sarah (his granddaughter) more than the rest is because he adjudged her not so capable of getting a living as girls commonly are. William Witter was named executor.

Joseph settled in the Tomaquag Valley with his family, which is in the southeastern part of the township of Hopkinton. Joseph and his brother, John Jr. were among the list of names that appeared in Hopkinton at the first town meeting of that town on the 4th day of April, 1757. There were seventy freemen and legalized voters of Westerly living on the north side of the Pawcatuck River who had met to organize the Town of Hopkinton under the act of incorporation. A saw mill was erected by Joseph on the Tomaquag Brook where it crosses the road running from Hopkinton City to Woodville. 27. ELIJAH WITTER (Joseph[4], Ebenezer[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. New London, CT September 15, 1734 d. Cromwell Hollow (near Geneva), Town of Seneca, Ontario Co., NY August 26, 1807. He married (1) at Preston, CT on November 18, 1756 to LUCY PARKE b. Preston, CT 1740 d. Preston, CT February 8, 1770, daughter of John Parke and Jerusha Starkweather. He married (2) at Preston, CT on May 29, 1770 by Samuel Mott, j.p., to ELIZABETH STORY b. September 26, 1749 d. Friendship, NY January 17, 1845, daughter of Joseph Story.

There is record of Elijah selling land at Preston on April 7, 1760 and again after his second marriage. On May 6, 1755 he was among those who received a deed from the Delaware Indians to the 1st Delaware Co. for land in Westmoreland, Litchfield Co., CT which is now part of Pennsylvania. He was on a list made June 2, 1769 by Clerk of the Committee of Settlers and on a "petition of John Durkee and others for a county on Susquehanna River October 1769" which became Parkbury (now Westmoreland, Palmyra Township, Pike Co., PA) and was an original drawer of a lot. In 1769, he signed a deed with the Delaware Indians as a Connecticut militia ensign, 8th Company of the 24th Regiment, Connecticut Militia, Revolutionary War, of "Lackaway District." When the settlers first came to Pennsylvania, they surveyed the land and fixed the bounderies of each settler's portion by mutual agreement. The Wallenpaupack Colony settlement seems to have been made very independently as they did not derive any title from the State of Connecticut. He paid taxes in 1788 in Pittstown (Wyoming Valley), PA.

Elijah purchased land in 1798 in the Town of Seneca, Ontario Co., NY and on April 25, 1803 he purchased land from Nicholas Low of New York City for $200. The land was located on Preemption Road in the Town of Seneca. The search for Elijah's grave was undertaken by Mrs. Lillian Good of Fairport, NY which ended at this farm on Preemption Road owned by George Moore, a descendant of Elijah. In a small cemetery on the farm were found the stones for Elijah, his daughter, Esther Witter Ansley, and his granddaughter, Permilla Witter. The stones were unearthed and reset and a ceremony was held in 1981 and a bronze marker was presented by the Veteran's Administration bearing the inscription: Elijah Witter, Ensign 8 Company, 24 Regiment, Connecticut Militia, Revolutionary War. His stone reads: In memory of Elijah Witter who died August 26, 1807, aged 72 years 11 months--Dear spouse and children shed no tears; I must lie here til Christ appears; Then burst the grave with sweet surprise; And in our Saviour's image rise.

The will of Elijah is found in the Surrogate's Files at the Court House in Canandaigua, NY, Book 2, page 442. The will was dated July 25, 1807. His wife, Elizabeth and son, Elijah were appointed executors. He left his wife, Elizabeth, one third of his real and personal estate; his son, Park and daughter, Zipporah $50 in money or stock at the decease of his wife; his son, Elijah $100 in stock at the decease of his wife; his son, David $150 in stock or produce; his daughters, Sarah, Abigail, Lucy and Elizabeth $1 each; his daughters, Easter, Hannah, Polly, Sabrina, Axsah, and Dolly all the household effects in equal proportions at the decease of his wife; his son, Joshua the house and homestead land.

They resided at Hampton, Brooklyn and Windham, CT. In DAR Lineage Book No. 125, p. 204, it states that Josiah was a private in the Connecticut Continental Regiment in 1775 and that he was born in 1740 in Preston and died in Brooklyn, CT. Other sources say he was a sergeant and later a lieutenant from Connecticut during the Revolutionary War. There are pension papers that say a Josiah Witter of Brooklyn, CT in 1783 commanded a company of volunteers and was in an engagement with the British at Saybrook, CT where he was wounded in four places by musket balls, taken prisoner and carried to Southold, Long Island and kept until March 27, 1783 when he was released. This Josiah was living in St. Albans, VT when he applied and received a pension and died in August 1821. This Josiah had a wife, Abigail, who died in St. Albans on January 1, 1832. He did not leave a will. These pension records may apply to Josiah Witter of Hopkinton (No. 42). See his account which gives more on the Revolutionary War service. I believe the pension belongs to this Josiah Witter and not No. 42, but that still remains to be proven.

42. JOSIAH WITTER (Joseph[4], John[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. Westerly, RI January 25, 1739 d. Hopkinton, RI July 20, 1828. He married at Hopkinton, RI on February 2, 1764 by John Burdick, justice, to TACY REYNOLDS b. Westerly, RI March 19, 1743 d. Hopkinton, RI April 2, 1807, daughter of Captain Zaccheus Reynolds and Susan Maxson. He married (2) to ABIGAIL LAWTON b. 1764 or 5 d. Hopkinton, RI February 20, 1851, daughter of Joseph Lawton and Abigail Foster. On February 28, 1759, Josiah and his brother, Jospeh, both of Hopkinton for five hundred pounds bought forty acres of land from David Tanner and about the same time, from the same person bought jointly one hundred and twenty acres, bounding land already held by them for five hundred pounds. On June 2, 1761, Josiah and Joseph for two thousand pounds sold eighty acres to their brother, William and on January 9, Josiah and his wife, Tase, sold a lot to William Witter, for thirty-four pounds.

Josiah served in the Revolutionary War and received a pension. In 1775 he was commissioned 1st Lieutenant in Capt. Nathan Peter's Company, Col. Timothy Danielson's Massachusetts Regiment and marched under Capt. Williams and Col. Arnold to Quebec. In 1777 he was commissioned 1st Lieutenant and served in Captains' Jabez Fitch and Nathan Peter's Companies and Col. Levi Well's Connecticut Regiment. In 1781 he was promoted to Captain in the same regiment and served until 1782. In 1783 he commanded a company of volunteers and was in an engagement with the British at Saybrook, CT where he was wounded in four places by musket balls, taken prisoner and carried to Southold, Long Island and kept until March 27, 1783 when he was released on parole. He was allowed a pension on an application executed April 17, 1818 while a resident of St. Albans, VT. His pension papers state that in 1820 he had no family but my wife, Abigail aged about 60 years old. This Josiah had children living in Hopkinton and Brookfield, NY. There are in the St. Albans, VT vital records a death record for Josiah Witters died August 1821 and Abigail Witters died January 1, 1832, but they can't possibly apply to the above Josiah and Abigail as Josiah's will is recorded at Hopkinton, RI in 1828 and his wife, Abigail, is listed on the 1850 census of Hopkinton, living with Josiah Witter Jr. I believe this pension and death records applies to Josiah Witter (No. 32). Josiah, Tacy, and Abigail are buried on the H. Ellsworth Crandall farm in Hopkinton on the Tomaquag Road going toward Hopkinton City. The data on the stone is:

Josiah Witter died July 20, 1828 age 89 years
Tacy, wife of Josiah, died April 2, 1807 age 84 years (her age is wrong on the stone)
Abigail, widow of Josiah Witter, died February 20, 1851 age 82

Josiah's will was written April 21, 1818 and recorded at Hopkinton, RI on August 11, 1828. He left his wife Abigail and daughter, Sarah Witter the use of the house. He also left his wife $125. He mentions his son, Wedon for four notes which I hold against him and his son, Joseph, deceased, his heirs five notes which I hold against his estate. He left his son, Josiah, all my real estate and farming utensils; his daughter, Susannah Langworthy $80; his daughter, Lois Witter $80; his daughter, Hannah Taylor $80 and note which I hold against Jonah Taylor to go towards the $80; his daughter, Eunice Taylor, deceased, her heirs Susannah and Harriet Taylor $40 each; his daughter Sarah Witter $80; to his four daughters all household furniture; his son Wedon all wearing apparel; his son Josiah the remainder of his estate. Josiah Witter Jr. was named executor.

On December 2, 1822 William, Martha, and Joseph Witter 2nd appeared in court and on April 7, 1823 the court appointed Jeremiah Thurston guardian to William Witter.

50. SAMUEL WITTER (Samuel[5], Joseph[4], Ebenezer[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. New London, CT June 20, 1752 d. Horton, Nova Scotia December 22, 1789. He married at Horton, Nova Scotia on April 14, 1774 to MARGARET DE WOLF b. Killingworth, CT January 13, 1757 d. March 16, 1803, daughter of Jehiel DeWolf and Phebe Case. Margaret married (2) JAMES BROWN and one reference says they moved to Buffalo, NY. She had four children by her second husband--Rachel, James Jr., Newton, and Eliza.

Samuel Witter transcribed the old genealogy of the Witter family on March 20, 1773 from an ancient manuscript which he had from his uncle, Ezra Witter. He entitled his manuscript, "The Genaligy of the Witters from their first arival from England to America, drawn from the Original, March 20th, AD 1773 by Samuel Witter." Samuel writes in the book, "Beginning at my great Grandfather's Grandfather, whose name was William, etc., being above 100 years ago. This account I had from my uncle Ezra Witter but he could not recollect the date of the year of their first arrival. It is my will that this account be kept in as good order as possible for years to come that generations yet unborn may know from whence they sprung, and I hope if any surviving friend should out-Live me that they will not Let this account be Lost--as my uncle who is now dead and gone spared no pains to collect this." This genealogy book was in the possession of his grandson, Theodore H. B. Witter of Vancouver, Canada for over 70 years. So seriously did he take the injunction of his ancestor to keep the account in "as good order as possible that generations yet unborn may know from whence they sprung," that he had added data to the book covering a period of 100 years. The book was last known to be in the possession of Theodore's son, Hilton B. Witter of Vancouver.

The entry of Samuel's death makes no note of the length of his illness or the nature of the malady, but in March of 1789 Deacon Witter became ill, and the progress of his illness he described in writing which gradually wavers and weakens as "a violent fit of the ague, followed by a vehement parching fever" and "distresses" at the stomach, which even "lemmonaid" failed to soothe. Samuel bought 225 acres of land in 1783 in the fertile Annapolis Valley of Nova Scotia for the sum of 20 shillings currency, which was less than $5. His book contains the original deed under which he bought the land.

Samuel was the proud possessor of the doctrinal confession of faith of his grandfather, Joseph Witter of Preston, CT, and in his book he has written this creed, which is one of the most interesting entries in this old history. He was a writer of numerous poems and religious works, which are found in his book. Many of these works can be found in the 1929 genealogy of the Witter Family by Georgia Washburn.

She married at Geneva, Ontario Co., NY on June 15, 1800 to ELISHA REYNOLDS b. Rising Sun, Cecil Co., Maryland February 3, 1779 d. Milford Center, Ohio February 10, 1843, son of Richard Reynolds and Rachel England. He married (2) February 26, 1829 to SOPHIA BURNHAM b. 1799 d. February 28, 1875. They are buried in Milford Center Cemetery. Elisha migrated to Geneva, NY about 1799 or 1800. Within the year he was married. Tradition has it that the Witter family opposed the marriage. It could have been because he was penniless or that he was younger than their daughter. Elisha secured some unimproved land which he farmed and made a success. Elijah Witter had financial reverses and Elisha came to the rescue and bought a controlling interest in his properties. About 1815 Elisha and family joined a party of settlers bound for Ohio, which included Mary's brother, David. Elisha settled in Milford Center where he bought 700 acres of farm land and the land being rich and fertile, he prospered immediately. After about 17 years on the Union County farm, Elisha turned his attention to industry and to the building of a town. His two sons, Ira and Immer, were bright young business men and joined in his project. In 1834, the town of Homer was laid out on the Reynolds farm and it became the leading industrial town in Union Co. The town of Homer no longer exists and the buildings no longer stand and the land was returned to farm land. Elisha died before the disappearance of his dream town.

on January 7, 1837 to Mrs. SARAH CONGER, a widow, b. New Hampshire about 1789 d. St. Albans, VT August 7, 1866 age 77 years. John and Deborah are buried in the Georgia Plains Cemetery and Sarah is buried in the Greenwood Cemetery at St. Albans. John and his brother, Hawley, removed before 1790 to Colchester Town, Chittenden County, VT as they are listed in the 1790 census there. They moved to Georgia Plains, Franklin Co., VT where John had a farm. The following children are mentioned in John's will: John W., Marshall B., Elisa Hale, Betsey Rowley, Sarah Ann Witters, and the guardian of Heirs of William Witters. Two other children, Melissa A. Witters and Shiveric H. Witters are associated with John Witters in land transactions and are probably his children. Melissa A. died before John and Shiveric H. may have died before John. John and his brother, Hawley, added an S to their last name. The reason for this is the story that John and Hawley were Loyalists to the British cause and did not want to be associated with the other families named Witter in New England, but this may be false as Hawley was a friend of Ethan Allen.

181. ROBERT WITTER (Ebenezer[6], Ebenezer[5], Joseph[4], Ebenezer[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. Scipio, Cayuga Co., NY July 26, 1802 d. Brodhead, Green Co., Wisconsin October 20, 1887. He married at Scipio, NY on January 15, 1822 to LORANA ROOD b. Aurelius, Cayuga Co., NY October 1803 d. Brodhead, WI July 2, 1885, daughter of James Rood (or Rude) and Betsey Miller. They are buried in Greenwood Cemetery at Brodhead, WI. Lorana's father, James Rood, moved from Aurelius to Scipio, NY when Lorana was two years old. When she was fourteen years old, she united with the Baptist Church at Scipio and Robert united with the same church when he was sixteen. Robert and Lorana spent the first ten years of married life in Scipio and then moved to York, Genesee Co., NY and they lived in various places in Genesee Co., including LaGrange which is now part of Wyoming Co. In 1842, they moved to Wisconsin and settled in Exeter in Green Co. Soon after moving to Exeter, they united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and remained members until death. They undertook the toils and privations of frontier life, and from the wilderness wrought out a home and farm of comfort and plenty. They resided on this farm for forty years, with the exception of three years spent in Monroe. Lorana was a sufferer for many years from rheumatism which made her partially helpless. The increasing feebleness of Lorana made it necessary to give up the care of the farm, so in March or October of 1882 they moved to Brodhead to reside with their daughter, Mrs. Manley H. Williams. Robert was a quiet man, not much of a talker, and never given to argument, but he had pronounced opinions of his own which guided his life. In politics he was always a Democrat. Lorana was blessed with a robust constitution, a genial disposition and kindly heart; she was not only the loving wife and faithful mother of eleven children, the mainspring of her home, but she was the willing, ready helper of all who came in her way.

Pleasant Township in Green Co. His brother, Robert Witter, bought land and built a saw mill on Little Sugar River in Mt. Pleasant, acting as an agent for his brother, Chester, who soon after sold the mill to Mr. Steadman. In the 1850 census Chester, Emily, and three children were living in Brooklyn Township in Green Co. where his occupation was milling. In the 1860 census, they were living in Monroe, Green Co. where Chester was a grocer. He was a trustee in the village of Monroe in 1860. He was not listed in Green Co. in the 1870 census, so he must have moved to Nebraska before then. His son, Alvin, was still in Green Co. in the 1880 census but by the 1900 census, he moved to Nebraska and was living in Wayne, Wayne Co. and possibly this is where Chester had moved to and died.

213. CLARISSA WITTER (David[6], Elijah[5], Joseph[4], Ebenezer[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. probably Ontario Co., NY in 1812 d. enroute from Austin, TX to Upshur Co., TX the summer of 1853 and descendants report she was buried under a pine tree on the trail. She married at Union Co., OH on October 23, 1831 to THOMAS LOPTON CAMPBELL JR. b. New York December 27, 1809 d. near Guthrie, Oklahoma Territory September 22, 1893 and he is buried in Summit View Cemetery, Guthrie, OK. His father, Thomas Lopton Campbell was born in Connecticut in 1785 and his grandfather was John Campbell who came to the Massachusetts Bay Colony from northern Ireland. Thomas Jr. married (2) in Missouri on January 16, 1862 to ELIZABETH MILLER, a widow.

Thomas and Clarissa moved from Union Co., OH to Illinois and lived in Logan Co. and in 1839 moved to northeast Texas. They followed the Mississippi River to the mouth of the Red River and followed this river across Louisiana and followed a tributary stream to the town of Jefferson in east Texas. They settled in Nacogdoches Co., which later became Upshur Co., to seek their fortune among the pine and black gum trees on the rich sandy loam. They received a third class headright land grant of 640 acres of land. A third-class headright was applicable to settlers in the Republic of Texas between October 1, 1837 to January 1, 1840. Conditions in east Texas were very primitive with the land settled mostly by Indians and Mexicans with few white settlements. Tom served in the Texas Rangers and fought in the East Texas Indian war in July 1839. In 1847 they left to move to Pettis Co., Missouri and the first night on the trail Indians stole their horses. They only stayed a short time and returned to Texas and moved to Austin in Travis Co. Thomas appeared on the Travis Co. tax rolls in 1850 having 16 horses, 100 cattle, and two wagons worth $980 and was assessed a tax of $3.95. In the 1852 tax roll, he had purchased 320 acres of land on Walnut Creek, a tributary of the Colorado River. He was an excellent farmer and cattleman. He sold this land in 1853 and bought 33 acres from Josiah Fisk in March 1853. He sold this land by summer and probably because of Clarissa's poor health, decided to move back to farmland he still owned in Upshur Co. Clarissa died on this trip at the age of 41 years. Clarissa was looking forward to meeting her brother, Joshua Witter, and sister, Anna Ardes, who were moving to Texas but she never saw them. Tom sold the rest of his land in Upshur Co. in 1855 and moved to Pettis Co., Missouri where he purchased 326 acres of farmland and stayed there four years. His son, Elijah, died there in 1857. In 1859 Tom sold his farm to his brother, Bushnell Campbell, and returned to Austin, Texas. There was unrest in Austin as to whether Texas would secede from the Union and Tom was totally opposed to it as was Gov. Samuel Houston. In 1861, Texas voted to secede and join the Confederacy. Tom decided to leave Texas for the duration of the Civil War. His son, Witter, wanted to save the herd of cattle and took them into Mexico for safekeeping. Tom and his family set out for Sedalia, Missouri where they would wait for the end of the war and then return to Austin. One night on the trail the horses strayed off and George blamed Henry and told him to go get them and not to return without them. Henry left and not finding the horses, didn't return. Years later Tom learned that Henry had returned to Austin and he served in the Confederacy Army while his twin brother, George, served in the Union Army. Tom's daughters, Mira and Elizabeth, had married Texans and contact with them was lost and they were never reunited with their family. Tom stayed a short time in Missouri and moved to Chautauqua Co., Kansas with his family and lived there for several years where he owned a farm. In 1889 he homesteaded in Indian Territory in Oklahoma, northeast of Guthrie, and lived the rest of his life there.

Indians caused a lot of trouble in the area, stealing horses and taking scalps frequently. In 1842 about four miles from the town of Gonzales, there was preaching one night at a school house by Rev. Z. Morrell. Just as the sermon was over and the people were leaving, they heard a gunshot about a quarter of a mile away. The next morning some of the settlers went to the area where they heard the shot and they found the body of Dr. John Witter, covered in blood, scalped and otherwise mutilated in the most barbarous manner. The settlers all attended the funeral of their friend. At his grave stood his four small children, who had lost their mother only a few weeks previously. The name of his wife is not known.

631. JEREMIAH "JERE" DELOS WITTER (Josiah[7], Weeden[6], Josiah[5], Joseph[4], John[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. Brookfield, Madison Co., NY September 8 or 18, 1835 d. Chicago, Illinois March 22, 1902. He married at Friendship, Allegany Co., NY February 16, 1860 to EMILY LEONE PHELPS b. Ceres, PA April 6, 1835 d. Wisconsin Rapids, WI August 1, 1914, daughter of Isaac Phelps and Laura Rew of Grand Rapids, Michigan. He came with his parents in 1850 to the Town of Dakota, Waushara Co., WI and lived on a farm. At 18 years of age, he entered the law office of his brother-in-law, William Webb at Wautoma. In May, 1859 he was admitted to the bar in Grand Rapids but returned to Wautoma. In December, 1860 he made Grand Rapids (now Wisconsin Rapids) his permanent home and he practiced law for eight years in partnership with Judge Webb, serving the people as district attorney and county judge. He saw larger fields in other directions than law and gradually took up real estate, insurance, lumber and banking interests. In 1872, he founded the First National Bank of Grand Rapids and in 1898, reorganized the Bank of Centralia. He had always been an executive at both banks. His lumbering interests were extensive, as he had been identified with most of the paper mills in the Wisconsin Valley. He had extensive interests in three paper mills in Appleton and was a stockholder in the South Centralia and Biron paper mills. He was a stockholder in many of the area business ventures and also had interests in cattle in Texas and rice in Louisiana, and some banking interests in the Dakotas. He avoided political office, but occasionally accepted a public office when his services were needed. He served for 25 years on the city board of education and served from 1889 to 1901 on the Board of Directors of the T.B. Scott Free Public Library of Grand Rapids. When the "Traveling Library" idea was new, Jere saw the vast possibilities for good lying within the scope of that idea and he donated $1,000 to equip traveling libraries to circulate in Wood and adjoining counties. By 1902, there were 42 of these traveling libraries, which came to be known as "Witter Free Traveling Libraries." He made generous donations to libraries in the area. He found his true happiness in doing good for others, but he did this good in a quiet way. He loved the city of Grand Rapids and did so much morally, financially and educationally for the community. One of his greatest desires before his death was to see the water power developed, as Grand Rapids is located on a river, but this never came into being. He thought big industry could be attracted to the area if the water power was developed. He was a member of the Congregational Church but later became a member of the Methodist Church where his wife was a member. Emily graduated from Alfred University at Alfred, NY and was deeply interested in the social and religious activities of Grand Rapids. He was one of the wealthiest and most progressive men in the Wisconsin Valley. In his will, he left $50,000 to the schools of Grand Rapids; $1,000 to each church; and $10,000 to the libraries. The school legacy was used to build the Witter Manual Training School. Emily left in her will $5,000 to the Riverside Hospital and $10,000 to the Methodist Church. They are buried in Forest Hill Cemetery at Wisconsin Rapids.

LaFayette, called "Fett", was a farmer in Boone Co., IL about three miles northwest of Blaine, but sold this farm on October 3, 1900 and did carpentry work in the Capron area and later in Beloit, Wisconsin. Missing the farm life, Fett bought the Clark Nye farm in October of 1902 known as the Maple Grove Farm located on the Spring Creek Road. He paid $3,200 for the farm. Florence had a short life as she suffered from pernicious anemia. Knowing she would never get well, she became despondent and wished to end her life so she had to be watched carefully by all. After her death, Fett tried to have housekeepers during the summer months but they spoiled Alyce or were not satisfactory workers, so they lived alone most of the time doing their own work. In 1911, Fett's mother, Sally, had sold her home in Clinton and was coming to live with Fett and Alyce. Before he had moved all her possessions into the house, she had suffered a stroke and died in a couple of days. Because of ill health, Fett rented the farm out and they moved to Beloit, but within a year they moved back to the farm. After Alyce was married, Fett lived alone except on two occasions when he was ill. Alyce, Martin McCabe and family moved in with him to care for him and the farm. Fett always loved his horses and whenever he traveled, it was always by horse and buggy as he would never get into an automobile. The farm was sold out of the family in 1936. LaFayette and Florence are buried in Oakwood Cemetery in Beloit, WI.

1146. ISAAC PHELPS WITTER (Jeremiah[8], Josiah[7], Weeden[6], Josiah[5], Joseph[4], John[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. Grand Rapids, Wood Co., Wisconsin May 11, 1873 d. Wisconsin Rapids, WI September 26, 1942. He married at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Des Moines, Iowa on June 27, 1900 to CHARLOTTE LIVINGSTON GIBSON b. Green Bay, Brown Co., Wisconsin in 1875 d. Beverly Hills, California June 3, 1955 age 79 years, daughter of Rev. George Gibson and Cecelia A. King. Isaac was a leading citizen of Wood County and in Wisconsin and was a banker, State Senator, businessman, and philanthropist. In 1892 he entered the University of Wisconsin and attended for three years and then spent one year in Europe, which included study in Berlin, Germany. After completing his education, he entered the Bank of Grand Rapids, serving as teller and vice-president and remained with the bank until his death. For many years, he was treasurer and a director of Consolidated Water Power & Paper Company, the paper industry for which his father had obtained the original water rights on the Wisconsin River. He headed the Grand Rapids Milling Co. during that firm's life in Grand Rapids; served as president of the Johnson Hill Co.; was interested in the Ahdawagam Paper Products Co. during its earlier years, and was a stockholder of Prentiss-Wabers Products Co. He shared ownership with his brother-in-law, George W. Mead, in the Mead-Witter block and was one of the sponsors of the Tri-City airport. He was a member of the Republican party and served two terms as state senator from 1916 to 1920. One of his civic pursuits was the development of the community athletic field which bears his name, Witter Athletic Field. He was very interested throughout his life in libraries, and his influence was felt as trustee of T. B. Scott Public Library and in the furtherance of the J. D. Witter traveling library, founded by his father. As a member of the Wisconsin Rapids board of education from 1900 until 1916, he played a prominent role in school affairs. The Witter vocational school building, erected with funds left to the city by his father, was built during his service as a school commissioner. Isaac and Charlotte were members of the St. John the Evangelist Episcopal Church in Wisconsin Rapids. They had an instrumental part in construction of the present church, and the organ was her personal gift. Charlotte was an accomplished musician and was organist for the church for many years. Isaac was president of the First National Bank and this was his main occupation. The palatial Witter home at 540 3rd Street, South was purchased by George Mead and given to the city of Wisconsin Rapids in September, 1947 to house the T. B. Scott Public Library. When the library moved to new quarters, their home became the new home of the South Wood County Historical Corporation in 1955. Isaac had bought a winter home in Beverly Hills, California and Charlotte moved there permanently in 1947. Bequests in Isaac Witter's will were left to the library to purchase books; the city of Wisconsin Rapids for upkeep, maintenance, and development of Witter Athletic Field; and their church. They are buried in Forest Hill Cemetery, Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin.

For the next eight years, they lived in Rockford where he was engaged in the furniture business with his brother, D. Ray Mead. In 1902 the death of his father-in-law, Jeremiah Witter, called him to Wisconsin Rapids to assist in managing Jeremiah's business affairs. Jeremiah Witter and Nels Johnson were the prime organizers of Consolidated Water Power & Paper Co. in 1902 and George Mead entered the fledgling firm on what he then considered a temporary basis. However, Nels Johnson's sudden death left him with the principal managerial responsibility while the plant was still under construction. The Wisconsin Rapids mill, under George's leadership, produced its first paper in 1904 on the world's first electrically powered paper machine. In 1911 the company purchased the Grand Rapids Pulp & Paper Co. in Biron, WI. In 1916 George Mead became president and Consolidated purchased the Interlake Pulp & Paper Co. at Appleton and two years later the company built a hydro-electric plant and tissue plant at Stevens Point. The company continued to change, expand, and grow thru the years under his leadership. In September, 1950 George suffered a stroke and resigned as president of Consolidated and his son, Stanton, became president. He spent his winters since retirement at his home in Miami Beach, Florida and his summers in Wisconsin Rapids. They are buried in Forest Hill Cemetery in Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin.

1158. HULDAH MARYBELLE WITTER (George[8], Squire[7], Weeden[6], Josiah[5], Joseph[4], John[3], Josiah[2], William[1]) b. Grand Rapids (now Wisconsin Rapids), Wood Co., Wisconsin September 16, 1865 d. Marshfield, Wood Co., Wisconsin July 16, 1935. She didn't like her first name and went by the name, Mary. She married in Grand Rapids, WI on August 11, 1886 to WILLIAM DUNCAN CONNOR b. Stratford, Ontario, Canada March 24, 1864 d. Phoenix, Arizona November 29, 1944, son of Robert Connor and Mary McLeish. Mary was one of the first women to attend the University of Wisconsin. After a two years' course there, she returned to Wood County and served as a teacher in Wisconsin Rapids and Auburndale. William's father, Robert Connor, settled in 1871 in a town that became Auburndale and with Robert's brothers they cleared land for farming, laid out a plan for the town, and purchased lands with large stands of oak, maple, birch and pine. Robert opened a general store and later formed the R. Connor Company. He expanded in 1876 with the purchase of a second-hand sawmill and in 1878 the purchase of a planing mill and blacksmith shop. In 1882-3, Robert's brothers left Wisconsin and Robert asked William to leave Lake Forest College and abandon his dream of a law career and join him in the company. He learned at an early age the art of "cruising" timber lands, which was to evaluate them for their potential and purchase possibilities and he began to master the intricacies of milling, sales, logging, farming, and animal husbandry. He realized that increasing timber purchases were the key to the business. In 1888, William took over the management of the company and in 1890, he incorporated the R. Connor Co. and in 1892 became its president. He purchased lands along the Chicago and Northwestern Railway near the Rice Lake waterways and in 1891 founded the village of Stratford in Marathon Co. By 1894 the company's annual production was 40-50 million board feet. They constructed the Marathon County Railway to connect with the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, making possible the shipment of timber from northern Wisconsin. In 1895 William moved his family from Auburndale to Marshfield and he became a prominent person in the city. He was active in Republican Party politics and was Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin from 1907 to 1909. He consolidated the three farms of 1,200 acres in Auburndale which served as a complement to the logging operations, providing both horses and food. He purchased thousands of acres of timber land in northern Ashland, Iron, and Forest Counties in Wisconsin as well as land in Florida, California, and British Columbia. In 1896, on the site of Scattered Rice Lake, a ten-foot dam was erected and a mill was erected. A townsite was chosen and named Laona and in 1900 the Connor Lumber and Land Company was formed with a directorate separate from the R. Connor Co. Laona grew and in 1902 the Laona and Northern Railway was built to connect with the Chicago and Northwestern Railway. In the 1920's he acquired hardwood stands in the Michigan counties of Gogebic and Ontonagon for the R. Connor Co. Also in the 1920's his sons, William, Richard, and Gordon joined the company. William Sr. became president of a related company, the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber and Timber Co. By 1934 the R. Connor Co. ceased operations in Stratford, Wisconsin and moved to its Michigan lands. In 1935 the financially hard-pressed R. Connor Co. was placed under Section 77-B, a form of semi-bankruptcy. A reorganization plan was accepted and its assets were taken over by the Connor Lumber and Land Co. In 1937, the company saw an intense battle between the A.F.L. and C.I.O. to organize the employees. A strike was called in 1938 against the Laona operations. The result was a victory by the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.). After William died in 1944, Richard became president and Gordon became vice-president. William and Mary are buried in Hillside Mausoleum in Marshfield, WI.
